Always helping and inspiring.

Preface

This is an edition of Attilio Ariostis' (1666–1729?) 57 movements with the title Recueil de piéces pour la Viole d'Amour. The only known source for these pieces is a manuscript by the Swedish composer Johan Helmich Roman (1694–1758) now in the Music Library of Sweden, Stockholm, who gratiously has provided the copies that I have used. Roman studied music in London during the years 1716–1721, a time period when also Ariosti worked in London. According to the New Grove Dictionary of Music & Musicians the pieces were probably copied around 1718.

The 57 movements, 58 if both versions of the last movement of Sonata 8 are counted, have been divided into 15 sonatas as described by Günther Weiß in Die Musikforschung XXIII, 1970. He also published sonata 3, 4, 10, 11, 13 and 14 in two collections; Hortus Musicus 221 and 223. This is the first complete publication of the pieces.

While making this edition I have always tried to keep it as close to the original score as possible. In the original, accidentals are typically only valid for the current note. In cases where todays practice is different, I have tried to clarify by putting accidentals above the staffs. Such accidentals should be valid for the rest of the bar.

The purpose of this edition, as well as all other music released by me, is a combination of me trying to learn more about 17:th and 18:th century music, and, at the same time, helping other people to get hold of interesting and rare music.
